CALL FOR 2020 NOMINATIONS

The MIA Award is given to an MPO Business member company or individual that deserves recognition for their achievement in the meat and poultry industry.

Nominations may come from an MPO Member (business, associate or affiliate). Self nominations are welcome. Nominations must state the reasons why this company or individual is deserving of this recognition.

The following examples may be used to support the nomination and provide a basic platform for evaluation:

- Description of company or individual
- Business Achievements: Could be related to business growth, product innovation, food safety, environmental, or health and safety
- Other business/personal related awards received
- Contribution to industry

Selection

The Award Selection Committee will review all nominations based on the information submitted.
